Captain Paul B. Hammick

A 1990 graduate of the Hartford Police Academy, Captain Paul Hammick has served as Acting Commander of the HPD's Southwest District since September, 2005, and Commander of the Southwest District's Zone Six since February, 2005. He also currently commands the HPD's Marine Division. During his sixteen year law enforcement career with the HPD he has commanded the Major Crimes and Evidentiary Services Divisions.

A certified instructor in Hate and Bias Crimes and former department Field Training Officer, Captain Hammick is the recipient of the Chief's Medal of Valor and Distinguished Service Medal. His wife, Maura Hammick, is a retired Hartford Police Department Sergeant.

Captain Hammick is a graduate of the Wentworth Institute of Technology in Boston, Massachusetts, and a History major at Trinity College. Captain Hammick will assume command the Southwest District which encompasses the Frog Hollow,

Captain Harold A. Even

A nineteen-year veteran of the Hartford Police Department, Captain Even has served as a patrol officer, sergeant, and most recently as a Zone Commander in the new Neighborhood Policing Plan. During his police career Captain Even has received fifteen department citations as well as the Courage of Connecticut Award in 2002 for his role in capturing two of "America's Most Wanted" as the Commander of the HPD Emergency Response Team.

In an effort to combat drugs and violence, Captain Even supervised more than 6,000 arrests as Commander of the Vice and Narcotics Division. Captain Even holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from Saint Anselm College and a Master's Degree in Public Policy from Trinity College.

Captain Even will command the Northwest District which encompasses the Blue Hills, West End and Asylum Hill neighborhoods.

Captain Brian Heavren

The Homeland Security Coordinator for the Hartford Police Department, Captain Heavren also commands the Hartford Police Department's Bomb Squad which serves the greater Hartford region, and has served as Commander of Zone Three in the Northeast District that encompasses the Northeast and North Meadows neighborhoods. While serving as commander of the Hartford Police Academy Captain Heavren reinstated the Hartford Police Citizen Academy, a program to facilitate partnerships between police and the public. More than one hundred citizens have graduated from the twelve week course.

A recipient of numerous department awards and citations, including the Distinguished Service Award, Captain Heavren graduated from the Hartford Police Academy in 1990. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Emergency Health Services from the University of Maryland. Captain Heavren will serve as Headquarters Commander.
